

Only prisoners who can answer 'YES' to all 8 questions below will be eligible to be considered for a Hardman Trust Award.

1. Are you a Cat D prisoner (male), or still serving a prison sentence (female)?
2. Are you:
 - i. male, a 'lifer', or serving either a fixed term sentence of 10 years or more or an IPP sentence?
 - ii. a female serving a sentence of 7 years or more and within three years of release?
3. Have you begun to draw up a plan for a productive and fulfilling crime-free life after prison?
4. Does your plan have the support of the Head of Learning and Skills and is your application likely also to have the support of a discipline officer?
5. Are you clear about what you need funding for?
6. Is it for something other than:
 - i. driving lessons,
 - ii. costs associated with purchase or running of a car, motorcycle or moped
 - iii. PSV training,
 - iv. travel costs to work placements
 - v. medical costs,
 - vi. furniture,
 - vii. leisure clothing, or something that is simply to support a leisure interest?
7. Have you carefully researched costs?
8. Have you looked at other possible sources of funding, in case you are not successful in your application to the Hardman Trust, or the amount awarded is less than the amount that you need and have you in particular consulted The Prisoner Funder Directory?
